2010 - 2011 FAR EAST CRUISE PROGRAM

ROAD TO HONG KONG

14 NIGHTS (Sun – Sun)

20 February 2011 – 06 March 2011
Singapore – Hong Kong • Cruise PD 14

This 14-night sailing covers an array of exotic destinations to tempt travellers from all budgets and experiences. Departing from Singapore the 'Road to Hong Kong' begins on the 20th February taking you through the South China Sea before heading north to Cambodia where, after a day at sea, we arrive in Sihanoukville.

From here we travel further to Vietnam, spending a night in Ho Chi Minh and visiting Da Nang, Nha Trang preceding another night in Halong Bay. The shore excursions available from these Vietnam destinations are of particular interest including tours to the Cu Chi Tunnels, the Mekong Delta region and a historical account of the Vietnam War in Da Nang.

Thirteen days after departure you will cruise into Hong Kong Harbour, one of the greatest harbours the world has to offer, with another night onboard before disembarking.

Merging this cruise with the following cruise from Hong Kong to Japan would allow you to include Okinawa, Tokyo, Kobe, Nagasaki, Pusan and Shanghai before the return trip to Hong Kong.
