When One Cruise is Never Enough

Save up to $1200 per Couple on Combo Cruises

Australians who love to cruise can save up to $1200 per couple by combining two back-to-back cruises from Perth and Adelaide this summer aboard Australia's only traditional liner, Athena.

Classic International Cruises has two new combo cruise packages:

* Join Athena's 11-night round-trip cruise to Bali from Perth on January 9, 2012, and stay onboard for the following five-night cruise from Perth on January 20 to Adelaide via the chalk-white beaches of Esperance and receive a $600 per person discount on the first cruise on January 9. Including this discount, the two cruises - totalling 16 nights - are now available from $2440 per person, twin-share.

* Sail on Athena's seven-night round-trip cruise from Adelaide on February 5, 2012, to Burnie, Port Arthur and Hobart in Tasmania and then remain onboard for the following six-night cruise from Adelaide to Perth on February 12 via the seafood capital of Port Lincoln and Esperance and save $400 per person off the first cruise on February 5. Including this discount, the two cruises - totalling 13 nights - are now available from $2110 per person, twin-share.

Conditions apply.

Arriving in Australia on December 18, 2011, to offer 15 cruises to and from Perth and Adelaide this summer, the classic-styled Athena carries only 550 passengers in an intimate, yacht-like atmosphere and boasts personal, old-fashioned service, a relaxed onboard atmosphere and fine cuisine as well as traditional wooden deck chairs, marbled reception foyer, pool, fitness centre and sauna, five bars and lounges, nightclub, showlounge, casino, library, boutiques, cinema and two restaurants. And all cabins have a full-sized bath – a luxury only found in suites on the latest superliners.
